Holiday park Kontiki

Located on one of the most beautiful spots of the Cote d'Azur, the gulf of Saint Tropez and its peninsula.

St. Tropez is the place where everyone dreams of visiting at least once in their lifetime. It is an oasis of light for painters and a major attraction for writers, artists and celebrities. St. Tropez was a sleepy little fishing village, which was put on the map by Brigitte Bardot the 'blonde bombshell' film star of the 1950s. Following her rise to fame, the press arrived and it became the 'in place' to visit. At night there is nothing better than to walk along the harbour where the larger boats are moored, and people watch. Here you will often see famous personalities coming off the boats, or in the nearby restaurants. Artists spend their days and evenings by the waterfront exhibiting their paintings - it is a truly magical way to spend an evening.

Ramatuelle, which is virtually next door to St. Tropez, is a typical small Provençal village with its maze of streets and is particularly noted for its 5 km. stretch of sandy beach by the Mediterranean sea known as the famous 'Pampelonne Plage'. Here you can sunbathe and watch the boats sailing past or mooring in the bay for the day. At lunchtime you can stroll along the waters edge and find somewhere to eat in the various restaurants or snack bars situated at the back of the beach, and who knows, you could find yourself sitting next to a famous celebrity!

TIPS & SUGGESTIONS

There are lots of lovely areas to visit. St. Tropez day or night is a thriving fishing village and you can watch the big boats coming into the port around 4 p.m. onwards.

Port Grimaud is very quaint and is dubbed 'Little Venice' because of its canals.

Bormes les Mimosas
Cavalaire
Cogolin market
Frejus market
Grasse (perfume factory)
Eze
Nice
Cannes
Antibes
St. Maxime
La Napoule
St. Paul De Vance (beautiful little village)

Draguignan

Verdun Gorge (Gorges du Verdon)

Ventimiglia market (Fridays). You need to be up early as it is a 2 hour drive. There is a fruit and flower market and a huge market along the whole of the front.

St Tropez

Saint Tropez is located in one of the most beautiful bays in the South of France. It is a picturesque village with beautiful yachts and boats in the harbour, with imposing old facades and streets with shops.

Along the harbour you will find fine artists with their specific paintings. "Place des Lices" with its avenue of trees provides a shady area where you can play jeux de boules and on Tuesdays and Saturdays there is a market in the square. (You may be able to get the bus from the campsite to the market). The bus leaves from the front desk. Please ask about this at Reception,

The citadel of Saint Tropez is also worth a visit.

There is also a large amusement park two large midget golf courses. These are situated in the rotunda of the Geant Casino

The amusement park is open evenings only.

Tickets can be purchased at the entrance to the park. Family tickets (2 adults 2 children) are reasonably priced.

WARNING! Park your car in the parking spaces provided otherwise your car will be towed away.

Port Grimaud is also called the little Venice of France. It has a harbour with canals and is less than 10 km away from the site. You can hire a boat here at a reasonable cost. The entrance to Port Grimaud can be found on the right side at the bridge after leaving the Casino roundabout.

Gorges du Verdon is compared to the "Grand Canyon" of America. It is very impressive whether you drive around it or stop for a break. You can hire canoes to go down the Gorges and there is a small beach. It is well worth a visit.

Gassin

This village is situated in the center of the St Tropez peninsula. It is located on a large hill (201m height) and is just four kilometers away from the sea. The village has crooked streets and old houses which have been preserved throughout the centuries. The location of this village is truly unique. From the village there are spectacular views of the vineyards, forests and the Gulf of St. Tropez. On the coast is Port Gassin, this port is significantly expanding and is increasingly beginning to resemble the ports of Port Grimaud and Cogolin.

Environment Presquile (Peninsula) de St Tropez

For those who want get away from the turbulent life you can drive along the coast to Presqu'île de St.-Tropez peninsula. These are two villages that have been unchanged for centuries. Atop a 201 meter hill lies Gassin, which was in the past a lookout from which all the Golfe of St Tropez was monitored. That was at the time of the Moorish invasions. The village is accessible via some narrow, steep, but nicely located roads from the surrounding roads. The houses appear stacked together, as more and more homes were scheduled to be built within the walls. The streets, gates, archways and staircases make Gassin very scenic.

Ramatuelle (2000 inhabitants) is an old Provençal village. The hill on which it is built, is covered with vineyards. The outer row of houses form the walls, in the middle of which is the gate of the Saracens. The story goes that people at one of the pirate raids drove by shooting at them. The church has a beautiful portal dating from 1620, made of a rare, green mottled stone (serpentine, also called green marble).

The peninsula has several viewpoints: from Gassin and Ramatuelle, and the intervening ruins of Moulins, from the rocky headlands of St. Tropez, Camarat and Lardier, the Col de Colle Basse, the Colline de Bestagne (on foot only) and chapel Ste-Anne, both of which are just outside St Tropez. The village of Cogolin (8000 inhabitants) is a lively commercial center with a population of farmers and artisans. Here the art of weaving can be seen, which is of a very high standard. (Tapis and Tissus, a weaving mill can be visited on weekdays). Here, too there are pipes made of heather roots. One collects the straight reeds from the valley and the rods are neatly made. Wind agriculture is focused on wine. It is a traditional Provençal village having the characteristics of Cogolin with its narrow streets and gates. The church there dates back to the 14th century.

Cogolin. This village is situated on the edge of the Massif des Maures and overlooks the Gulf of St. Tropez. This village attracts many visitors throughout the year. In the village you can still visit an old windmill. In addition, you will also find a 14th century bell tower. This town is also connected to the sea. Just four kilometers from the village is the marina of Cogolin. Here, more than 1,500 yachts can moor. The marina is fully equipped. There are many shops, cafes and restaurants where you can quench your thirst. Cogolin is a suitable starting point for (walking) tours of the Massif des Maures. A car journey of approximately 70 kilometers through the valley of Môle direction Bormes-les-Mimosas, where you can take the beautiful scenic, but narrow road to Collobrières. The road through the Forêt des Maures brings you back into the valley at Grimaud.

Markets in the area

Monday	Les Issambres
Tuesday	Saint Tropez
Wednesday	Gogolin,
Thursday	Port Grimaud / Ramatuelle. There is also a brocante (flea market) on the right on the road towards Cogolin.

On Sunday mornings there is a flea market in Grimaud. Follow the road towards the Geant Casino, then go straight over following the Cogolin signs. At the next roundabout turn right towards Grimaud. At the end of this road turn left and follow the signs to Grimaud. At the next junction turn right towards St Maxime. In the woods on the left hand side after about 500 metres is a car park. This is called le Jas de St Robert. Tip: do not go there on a windy day as the fabrics blow about.

Shopping

The Geant Casino supermarket can be found on your left hand side after you leave the Casino roundabout complex on the road to St. Tropez. This supermarket is reasonably priced, does a wonderful fish counter and you can purchase larger bottles of fresh semi-skimmed and full fat milk from here. There is also a shopping mall within the supermarket complex.

You can access the internet from the coffee shop or from the MacDonaldis on the other side of the car park. The Geant Casino is open from 9:00 am to 21:00 pm.

There is another supermarket called 'Dia' on the road towards Cogolin. Some things here are considerably cheaper to buy and they do a very good range in fresh meat, fruit and vegetables as well as frozen foods and drink etc. To find it you need to go past the Casino supermarket and head for Cogolin. After you have cleared the Casino roundabout complex you will come to another roundabout. Go straight over towards Cogolin, and a little way further along you will see a parade of shops on your right. There is a hardware store, clothes Maison Le Monde (a beautiful decoration shop), Morgan (a clothing boutique), Weldon (a hardware store), and Gifi (another kind of hardware store selling sunloungers etc. at a cheaper price than Weldon), a boulangerie and the Dia supermarket. There is also a Peugeot garage on the road to Cogolin.

If you do not want to drive far for provisions, go out of the campsite and turn left towards Ramatuelle (less than 3 km). After you pass a garage on your left you need to take the next turning on the left signed 'Le Camerat'. Then at the next intersection turn right at the small bridge and the SPAR supermarket is a few yards further on on the right hand side. This is also open on Sunday mornings. You can get a comprehensive range of good meats. fish, fresh milk etc., and opposite SPAR you can buy fresh vegetables.

Tip: If you want to pick up provisions before arriving at Kontiki, exit the motorway at Le Muy and drive through the mountains. At the first roundabout Aqualand Water Park is on your left, and on the right side are a few shops. 300 yards after the 3rd roundabout from the mountains you will see on the right hand side the sign for LIDL supermarket. You can purchase cheap fresh vegetables and meat. You then have about a 20 minute drive from there to the campsite.

Wine Vineyards

There are several Chateau's in the area for those who want to buy kegs and/or bottles of good wine.

Chateau de Pampelonne is our "neighbour" holiday park Toison d'Or.

Chateau de Ramatuelle is located about 4 km from holiday park Kontiki towards Ramatuelle. Continue along the road and round the bend bypassing Ramatuelle. The winery is a few hundred meters along the road on the left.

At the "Geant Casino" roundabout head in the direction of Cogolin, and the winery is immediately left after the roundabout. It is called 'le petit village' and is near the fairground (Luna Park)

Garden centre

At the Geant Casino and amusement park roundabout turn right and take the road for St. Maxime. Some yards along the road after you have passed the Renault garage, you will see the winery on your left hand side.

EXCURSIONS

The campsite arranges several attractive excursions to places of interest in the area, including the Gorges du Verdon, Nice, Monaco, Monte-Carlo, Port Grimaud and the market in Saint Tropez (Tuesday and Saturday) etc. There are information leaflets available in Reception.
